

Integrated Benefits Institute Affiliate Membership Benefits

EXECUTIVE IMPACT

HEALTH & PRODUCTIVITY

What Is It?

Stakeholder member benefits in the Integrated Benefits Institute (IBI) provided through SouthWest Health Alliance provides privileged access to a wealth of IBI resources, including research, employer case studies, members' only web pages and groundbreaking publications.

Detail

IBI is a national, non-profit membership organization for employers interested in health and productivity management—and specifically, the role of integrating benefits. As a Stakeholder member Affiliate, SWHA is able to extend the benefits of Affiliate Membership to its members.

SWHA members will receive:

- Copies of IBI research reports, research data and other publications
- Access to IBI speakers' bureau PowerPoint slides
- Access to IBI's member-exclusive web page
- Notification of/opportunity to participate in integrated benefit research projects
- Participation in IBI's annual member meeting.

Key Benefits

- Use reports and publications to gain insights that can help your organization reduce total health and productivity costs and improve performance.
- Expand your professional network through meetings.
- Participate in research projects that will yield new insights into your organization's health management strategy.

To Access This Program

1. As a Full or Charter Member of SWHA, you will automatically receive an invitation with your members-only password and access information in a welcome letter on our behalf inviting you to take advantage of the benefits, information and services that IBI offers.
2. Please take the opportunity to use the valuable information and other discounted benchmarking services.
3. If you decide not to take advantage of the automatic membership, please respond to IBI to decline the membership.
4. Once your membership is activated, you will receive further information and notifications of IBI publications and events.

SouthWest Health Alliance (SWHA) is making this program available as part of its member benefits package focused on employee health and productivity Initiatives. SWHA is committed to helping employers understand and enhance the Health and Productivity of their employees.